📄 PROFILE

Hello, I'm Ehab Hamada Haroun, a creative and dedicated web developer with a strong background in programming and accounting software. I began my journey into programming by learning Excel VBA and designing accounting software, which has given me a unique perspective on developing user-friendly and efficient web applications.

My passion for web development led me to acquire skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. I am a quick learner and enjoy staying up-to-date with the latest web technologies and trends. I am currently learning Node.js to become a full-stack developer.

I have completed several web projects, which are available on my Github profile. I enjoy working on challenging projects that allow me to exercise my problem-solving and analytical skills. I am a creative thinker who is committed to delivering high-quality solutions to clients
